Hockey:

On Saturday, it was the start of the outdoor hockey season with a mixed bag of fixtures against Kloof, Rossburgh and Glenashley Prep.

U14A started of the season with a very convincing 5 - 0 win over Kloof U14A.

U16A showed a lot of promise with their 2 - 0 win over Kloof U16A.

U16B played Rossburgh who are still new to hockey and learning the game, however the U16B were to strong and had a good win over them.

U14B played Glenashley Prep and worked on a lot of new structure plans which paid off, and they won 5 - 0. Well done to all the Danville Hockey players.

Well done to the following girls who made the Umlazi teams in their respective age groups:
